WILLIAMSBURG, VA., May 6.—William and Mary took its game with Fork Union easily on the Cary Field this afternoon by a score of 10 to 4.
The visitors were not in the game at any point, and the playing was stow and uninteresting throughout. At times cheers were brought forth by a few spectacular plays, but for the most part, a duil apathy seemed settled on the spectators.

William and Mary started the scoring in the second inning, piling up two points. Two more were brought in the third five in the sixth, and one in the fifth inning on errors, one in the seventh, and one in the ninth on clean hitting.

Lewis pitched six innings for Will

LYNCHBURG, Va., May 5.—The Lynchburg and Danville managements have agreed upon an exchange of games, by which the game scheduled for Danville next Saturday will be played here. The game scheduled to be played here August 25 will be transfers to be a Lynchburg plays six consecutive games on the Danville grounds, and the last one is to be taken away under the belief that the attendance will be small. In August the Red Sox have few games at home, while Lynchburg will play about seventeen at home. The arrangement seems to be a good one for both teams under the circumstances.
